At that time it was specific to the proposed territorial changes to the hunders field Town lost another second division game, which enabled Derby county, which beat Bury by 2 to 1, to go for the table. The Arsenal lost to Preston North End. Watford again got into the running for the top of the Southern League by a win over Gillingham by four clear goals. Miwall lost a fine opportunity of catching the present leaders by losing to Swindom Town by 2 to 1.

All the leading Scottish League clubs again picked up points, so the top positions remain unchanged from last week. The client that time it was results: ganized baseball. At that time it was announced, at any rate, that the association was ready to resign much of its authority to the commission.

EXHIBITOR HURT IN HORSE SHOW FALL AT JUMPS

Edwin Russell, Jr., Suffers Broken Collarbone, but Wins Reserve Ribbon.

LARGE CROWD AT FINISH

There was a thrilling anticlimax to the Horse Show in Madison Square Garden yesterday afternoon when the first serious accident of the week long show occurred. Edwin Russell, Jr., owner of Heartlands Farm, Warrenton, Va., was showing off his magnificent jumper Skylark in the heavyweight division of the hunters' championship. The horse blundered at the brush fence, which is the simplest obstacle in the course, and coming down in a jumbled heap threw his rider so heavily that he suffered a broken collarbone.

In spite of his injury the Virginia sportsman remounted and rode his horse over the remaining fences, with the result that Skylark took the reserve ribbon. Mr. Russell was taken to Bellevue Hospital, where his broken collarbone was attended to, and later he returned to the Victor in Squash Tournament Garden to see the finish of the show. The accident to Skylark over the little brush fence was the more remarkable because on Friday night Skylark was the winner of the high jump, clearing six feet nine inches over formidable fixed bars. In attempting a record after making his winning jump Skylark crashed through the heavy timber, and at that time it looked quite possible that both horse and rider
